Published Every Wednesday.

PAW PAW, MICH., NOV. 14, 1888.

O. W. ROWLAND, EDITOR.

FOUR, four, four months more.

"GROVER, dear, you're off the rug."

THERE will never again be a solid South.

BURT's boodle didn't win to any great extent.

BEN will never offer to return those flags, boys.

CLEVELAND was right; no second term for him.

PRESIDENT HARRISON sounds well, especially to republican ears.

GROVER can go a-fishing on Memorial Day or any other day he wants to.

It was amusing, the way the state of Michigan slipped out of Don's vest pocket.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is down on his luck. He is no longer the "man of destiny."

MICHIGAN was a doubtful state; the doubt was as to the size of her magnificent republican plurality.

THE great vetoer was most effectually vetoed, and the "old boys" took a great deal of pleasure in casting their vetoes.

SERIOUSLY, now, don't you really think that the grandson is a greater man than the grandfather? Of course you do.

THE man who had a grandfather has rented the White House for four years from the 4th day of March, 1889, with the privilege of renewing his lease for another similar term.

LAY aside the red bandana; as a partisan emblem, it is played out and has again become a mere snuff-wiper. The stars and stripes is all the banner this country wants. "Old glory's good enough for us!"

DAKOTA will not much longer remain a territory. At least three new republican states—North and South Dakota and Washington—will be admitted before another presidential election, and then where will the democrat party be?

ALL during the campaign, the Courier was prating about the demoralization of the republican party in this country. A republican gain of some 600 votes speaks well for the demoralization. Demoralize us some more, BERT.

THE personal liberty league, alias the whiskey men of Detroit, succeeded in cutting down Governor LUCE's vote in Wayne county quite materially. The republican legislature elect will be derelict in its duty if it does not deal still harder blows to the whiskey men and their abominable business.

WITH the increased representation that will come to the great North-west and the Pacific slope under the next re-apportionment, as well as from the admission of new republican states, New York will cease to be the pivotal state. The republican party can win future fights even if she should go democratic.

Chestnut Shucks. In view of the magnificent republican victory, democratic ante-election predictions are interesting reading—to republicans. The following are a few of the gems of democratic prophecy, veritable chestnut shucks, that the NORTHERNER treasured up during the campaign, for future reference:

Ah, Benny, we sigh for you and your namesake at Indianapolis, for you are both doomed to disappointment.—Bangor Democrat.

It is a fact that more than one-half of the representative districts of this state are democratic.—Free Press.

In defense of the grand old party, it may be said that it has been forced into the corner where it now sits like a Rachel mourning for her children.—Free Press.

All indications point to the election of Cleveland and Thurman.—Detroit Free Press.

A Cleveland and Thurman club was organized at Bloomington last Tuesday evening. This kind of a club is getting numerous, and in November it will strike a deadly blow.—Bangor Democrat.

The next governor of the state of Michigan: Wellington R. Burt is the man, and don't you forget it.—Courier.

Look out for Minnesota when the returns come in!—Jackson Patriot.

Wayne county alone will wipe out the beggarly republican plurality of 1884 in the state.—Free Press.

Wellington R. Burt towers far above every other figure in the Michigan campaign. He is easily the leader in the light.—Douagiac Times.

And while it is true that every state which went for Cleveland four years ago will proudly repeat its record, there is the strongest probability that some of the states which were then in the Blaine column will have their names transferred to swell the electoral vote of the man who has so highly commended himself by four years of wise and honest administration. Foremost on the list of these probable accessions is our own Michigan.—Free Press.

The election of Cleveland, and Wellington R. Burt for governor of Michigan is now conceded by our best judges. Let the eagle scream!—Douagiac Times.

Never in the political history of the county has the republican party been in such a demoralized state.—Courier.

Very conservative calculation shows a plurality of 40,000 in New York state for the Cleveland and Thurman electors.—Free Press.

Chicago business men look to see Illinois cast its electoral vote for Cleveland.—Douagiac Times.

New York is safe. Indiana is secure in spite of Dudley's infamous schemes.—Free Press.

Mr. Maynard is making a lively canvass and, if he is not elected, will make his pompous competitor, Julius Caesar, hustle.—Courier.

It is out of the question for the republicans to have a majority in Michigan.—Free Press.

After election and we have received the good tidings of Cleveland and Thurman's election, and that the entire democratic ticket in Michigan is elected, we promise to settle down and give our readers a first class local paper again.—Courier.

New York is sure for Cleveland by at least 50,000.—Bangor Democrat.

The upper peninsula will go against the republicans this year.—Free Press.

It is a fact that the republicans have good grounds for fearing the result of the state ticket.—Courier.

There is a fighting chance also in Illinois and Ohio, while everybody knows that the democratic prospects are better in Michigan to-day than the republican prospects.—Free Press.

1888 will long be remembered for the March blizzard, the cold wave of May, the hot weather of June, the cold wave of July, the hot political campaign and the re-election of Cleveland.—Berrien Springs Journal.

From the homes and firesides of the toiling millions will come a voice in November calling upon Cleveland and Thurman to guide the ship of state into the haven of industrial as well as political freedom.—Douagiac Times.

As for the democracy, who are tolerably certain to control Michigan legislation next winter, they will probably prefer to give high license a fair trial rather than devise any new scheme.—Free Press.

Harrison and Morton make Michigan solid for the democracy.—Free Press.

A huge anti-monopoly tariff reduction tidal wave is just rising that will sweep this country clean in November.—Pittsburgh Post.

The state is irreparably lost to them and for the next two years, at least, they must be satisfied with honest democratic state government.—Courier.

Ex-Senator McDonald of Indiana, is confident that the state will be carried for Cleveland and Thurman by fully 7,500. Cut this out and paste it in a conspicuous place.—Free Press.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Bartram & Millington's drug store.

MARTIN & MURPHY, - Lawton, Mich.

BARTRAM & MILLINGTON.

YES SIR! We carry Groceries. Coffee? Yes sir. Here is our own brand, something new, in one pound packages, roasted expressly for us by the Woolson Spice Co. of Toledo. The best coffee you can buy in one pound packages. We call it the WOLVERINE FAVORITE. It is a light roast, even mixture of Mocha and Java, and if you use it once you will again. Grind it for you? Yes sir! What next? Tea. Do you want our favorite uncolored Jap at 50 cents? Nicest to be had in the market at that price. Oh, yes! We have always carried a complete stock of groceries. Make it our pride to carry everything first class. The old Vail & Crane Crackers are good enough for us. Their quality is always good. The Warren Haven Cheese is always the same too. We find it pays us to carry good goods. Yes sir! When we get hold of a good thing that we can put our own brand on, we just call it "Wolverine" and that stamps it as A 1. Here is our WOLVERINE BAKING POWDER, made for us by DeLand & Co. We guarantee it absolutely pure. Sell it for 20 cents per pound. Sell lots of it too. It all commenced with our WOLVERINE COUGH SYRUP. That was such a success that we concluded to call everything we could "Wolverine." Commenced by christening the store by that name. We shall sell 1,000 bottles of the Cough Syrup this winter. Yes, it's the same size as the other remedies that sell at 50 cents.

NO! We don't call our Crockery and Glassware "Wolverine," but the store going by that name makes it equivalent. Our stock of Lamps this winter is very large and prices very low. No one ought to go in the dark. Oh! yes! We have more Hanging Lamps not up yet. Don't know where to put them. Yes, Books are cheap. By the way, let me show you how we do a great deal of our manufacturing in the drug line. We manage to improve a great many spare moments this way. We took it into our heads that if we had the facilities we could make a good many things we have always bought before, and if we only made what is styled an "elegant" production by Pharmacists, we could be sure that they were just as represented in the medicinal way. Sometimes a preparation we may buy is not always what is claimed for it. This is our Double Pressure Percolator; works to a charm and we keep it in almost constant operation on some one preparation or other. We claim that the medicinal preparations of our own make, as Elixirs, Fluid Extracts and Tinctures, are not excelled by the products of the largest manufacturers, and we always know our goods to be fresher. Oh, no trouble to show you; always pleased to give one an insight into our business. Come in and see us again. Anything you may want in our several lines you will find satisfactory, or if not so, we will use every endeavor to make it so.

CIGARS? Oh, yes! Record Breakers, Tansill's Punch or Sun Shine. Best five cent cigars in town. Drugs, Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Lamps, Wall Paper Etc. That's the way we do it. We mean what we say and stand by it.

The Wolverine—BARTRAM & MILLINGTON.
